

047 Have you ever tasted startling eggs? What is your favourite treat?

048 Today, there is plenty of choice! What ways do you know of sending a message to someone who lives far away?

049 In the time of Margaret of Austria, the post was the only way to send messages. What ways do you know of sending a message to someone who lives far away?

050 In the garden of the Court of Busleyden, you can find, next to the statue of Hera, a proud animal. Do you find it?

051 What things would you keep in your own museum?

052 Imagine: all the taps have dried up! Where would you get water from?

044 What does CHORAL mean here?

- A hard, colourful layer under water in warm seas, made of skeletons of small marine animals.
- Songs sung in church.

 Answer 2 is correct

045 You're bound to know a familiar tune by LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN. Walk up to the WOLLEMARKT, humming.

046 Think of the wackiest phrase or the shortest story and whisper it from EAR to EAR. Does what the last person in the line say match what you started saying?

047 Have you ever tasted startling eggs? What is your favourite treat?

048 Today, there is plenty of choice! What ways do you know of sending a message to someone who lives far away?

049 In the time of Margaret of Austria, the post was the only way to send messages. What ways do you know of sending a message to someone who lives far away?

050 In the garden of the Court of Busleyden, you can find, next to the statue of Hera, a proud animal. Do you find it?

051 What things would you keep in your own museum?

052 Imagine: all the taps have dried up! Where would you get water from?

041 How tall are you? How many times do you fit into the statue of ST RUMBOLD?

042 Did you pay attention? Then you will know the weight of the heaviest canion of ST RUMBOLD'S CATHEDRAL:

- 70,000 kg
- 1,000 kg
- 100,000 kg

 The last answer is correct

043 Do you play an instrument or do you dream of becoming a musician? Tell your friends which instrument you would be holding on stage!

044 What does CHORAL mean here?

- A hard, colourful layer under water in warm seas, made of skeletons of small marine animals.
- Songs sung in church.

 Answer 2 is correct

045 You're bound to know a familiar tune by LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN. Walk up to the WOLLEMARKT, humming.

046 Think of the wackiest phrase or the shortest story and whisper it from EAR to EAR. Does what the last person in the line say match what you started saying?

047 Have you ever tasted startling eggs? What is your favourite treat?

048 Today, there is plenty of choice! What ways do you know of sending a message to someone who lives far away?

049 In the time of Margaret of Austria, the post was the only way to send messages. What ways do you know of sending a message to someone who lives far away?

050 In the garden of the Court of Busleyden, you can find, next to the statue of Hera, a proud animal. Do you find it?

051 What things would you keep in your own museum?

052 Imagine: all the taps have dried up! Where would you get water from?

040 Even on this PULPIT, the animals rule the roost! Try to spot them all.

- snake, squirrel, eagle, horse, snail, frog, salamander, birds

038 Can you spot the artist on the stained glass window? What is he holding in his hand?

037 Your turn: now you're the architect! Finish this tower with the CRAZIEST ideas.

036 Dig into your memory and think of the tallest building you've ever seen.

039 Turn this stained glass into a real piece of art. A little job to take home?

053 Important families like that of Margaret of Austria were proud of their family tree. We have reserved a place for your family. Ask the grown-ups to help you draw your family tree.

054 Are you a collector? What are your favourite gadgets?

055 You don't need to be a court poet to write a beautiful poem. Turn the dashes opposite into words. That way, a real poem will emerge. Have you noticed that your poem has 11 words? That's why it's called an ELEVEN-word poem! We'll give you a helping hand: your start and finish your poem using the same word. Use the name of an animal. BEST OF LUCK!

Example
Lamb
white fleece startled, black eyes disappears into the herd
lamb.

056 Write down your mum's or dad's profession and draw the appropriate object next to it.

057 What should your flag look like? Grab a pencil and show us.

058 Ask one of the grown-ups to stand three metres away. Between you, there's a straight, invisible line. Imagine you follow that line, and walk up to the grown-up as straight as possible. Lost your balance and fallen off the line? Back to square one and good luck with your second attempt!

059 Take a handkerchief or another piece of material (it might even work with a jumper). Remove one shoe and imagine that's the Opsinjoorke. Grab hold of two corners of the handkerchief or the piece of material and ask a friend or one of the grown-up to hold the other two corners. Hold the material so that it's taut, place the Opsinjoorke in it and throw it up! Imagine you're part of the Ommegang procession and walk up to the Tourist Office of Mechelen.

060 Pull a face, or copy an animal you encountered on your journey through Mechelen, take a snapshot of it and share it with us via Instagram, Pinterest, Facebook or Twitter!

THE END

EN
MECHELEN SENDS YOU ON YOUR WAY
FROM ALBATROSS TO ZEBRA
THE BIG PLAN

033 The MARKET SQUARE seems like a farmyard with all the animals scattered across the square! Try to round them all up and write them down on the lines:

034 Many of the houses on the MARKET SQUARE have a name. How would you name your house?

035 Imagine you're a medieval merchant and ride your horse and cart on the old road.

MECHELEN SENDS YOU ON YOUR WAY
FROM ALBATROSS TO ZEBRA
THE BIG PLAN

GAME INCENTIVE

CANALS

