

Discover places and stories that paint a good picture of Mechelen's Burgundian past and present during the Burgundian city walk through the city.

Walk past imposing city palaces, historic churches, and picturesque cityscapes. En route, you also stop in St. Rumbold's Cathedral and the Aldermen's House, where you can enjoy an exclusive visit to the hall with its historic murals.

After this walk, figures like Margaret of Austria and Emperor Charles V will no longer hold any secrets for you, thanks to the guide's lively stories with plenty of fun anecdotes and facts.
